

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface	i
A few words about footnotes and sources	iii
Introduction	1
Competitive Markets Make Capitalism Work	1
A global inflection point in governance	2
Chapter 1
The Attacks on Capitalism	5
Basis of the recent attacks	7
Chapter 2
Trust in People’s Decision-Making Defines Capitalism	11
The cornflakes example	12
Regulation needed to enable consumers to be informed ..	13
Does capitalism depend on consumers being rational? ..	14
Capitalism, Humanism and the Industrial Revolution	15
How capitalism and its regulation derive from humanism ..	17
Humanism, capitalism and democracy	18
Materialism, boom and bust, and inequality	19
Chapter 3
Capitalism’s Difficulties	23
Some of Capitalism’s Major Defects	23
Capitalism and “externalities”	23
Winners and Non-winners	24
Equality of Opportunity	25
Natural monopolies, state responsibilities, and public amenities	27

What about “free markets”?	29
Greenspan’s Capitalism in America	29
Excessive regulation in support of capitalism	30
Business aggregates versus individual workers	31
How the middle class has fared economically since 1970.	32
The decline of industrial unions in America	33
Is the problem globalization?	35
Chapter 4
Is Socialism Better? Whose Socialism?	37
European democratic socialism	37
Socialism and Bernie Sanders.	38
The “Democratic Socialists of America”	39
Socialism’s Defects	41
Can what an old guy says be relevant?	42
Chapter 5
A Thought Experiment—Analyzing an Important Social Problem as an Example	43
The benefits of black male teachers	47
Chapter 6
Corporate Governance	49
Does the Delaware Corporation model need change? . . .	51
Productivity	54
Have national productivity increases not been passed along to workers in recent years? If not, why not?	57
Moral Capitalism	61
The “B” Corp and “Benefit” Corporation Concepts	63
Sweden’s unique bargaining system	64
The German Co-Determination Example.	65
The Mutual form of ownership	68
What makes companies profitable?	70

Chapter 7

The Crucial Role of Antitrust Laws	73
Monopolies	74
Mergers and acquisitions	80
Weeding out fake news	82
Business concentration and worker compensation	83

Chapter 8

Beware The Great Nostalgia	85
The Golden Age—Not.	86

Chapter 9

Economic Justice	91
Economic justice in America	93
Guaranteed annual income and similar proposals	94

Chapter 10

Government Capture by Rich Cronies	97
Caricatures of capitalism	97

Chapter 11

What has capitalism accomplished and what should we expect it to accomplish in the Future?	101
What should we expect capitalism to accomplish in the future?	103

Chapter 12

The Money Problem	107
The peculiar role of money	107
Money markets	110
Dangers of Capitalist Finance—	111
Borrowing short to lend long or in a currency that is not your own	112
Borrowing to create an economic boom	113

Too Big to Fail.	115
Investment banking.	117
Mergers and Acquisitions.	119
Trading	120
Chapter 13
How the Business Corporation and Capital Markets Helped to Create America.	123
Chapter 14
Ethics and Capitalism	125
Trust and Social Capital	126
The Moral Basis of Capitalism	127
Selected Bibliography	129